

Diploma in Engineering (69 credit hours) Program Requirements by Term

2024-25 Calendar

Fall Semester Year 1 (Sept-Dec)	Winter Semester Year 1 (Jan-April)	Fall Semester Year 2 (Sept-Dec)	Winter Semester Year 2 (Jan-April)
EGNE 1206	EGNE 1203 ^{S1}	EGNE 2303 W	MATH 2303 S2
Technical Communications	Engineering Mechanic 1: Statics	Thermodynamics	Differential Equations I
EGNE 1210 S1	CSCI 1227 S1	EGNE 2308 W	EGNE 2302 S2
Engineering Design 1: Graphics	Computer Programming & Problem Solving	Electric Circuits I	Engineering Economics
MATH 1210 W, S1, S2	MATH 1211 S1, S2, F	MATH 2301 S1	EGNE 2309 S2
Introductory Calculus I	Introductory Calculus II	Applied Linear Algebra	Probability & Statistics
PHYS 1210 W	PHYS 1211 S1	MATH 2311 S1	EGNE 2307
University Physics I	University Physics II	Intermediate Calculus	Engineering Design II
CHEM 1210 W	CHEM 1213 S1	Discipline 1	Discipline 3
General Chemistry I	General Chemistry II for Engineering
HIST 1301*		Discipline 2	Humanities Elective
Intro to History of Science & Technology *May be taken either semester			*May be taken either semester

Discipline	Mechanical	Civil /	Electrical	Chemical	Industrial Environmental
Discipline 1	EGNE 2301 S1 EGNE Mechanics II: Dynamics	GEOL 1204 ^{S1} Geology for Engineers	EGNE 2330 S2 Data Structures & Algorithms for EGNE	CHEM 2344 ^{S1} Organic Chemistry I	any discipline course *May be taken either semester
Discipline 2	EGNE 2304 S1 Mechanics of Materials	EGNE 2304 S1 Mechanics of Materials	EGNE 2305 Digital Logic	EGNE 2401 Process Engineering	any discipline course *May be taken either semester
Discipline 3	EGNE 2306 S2 Fluid Dynamics	EGNE 2306 S2 Fluid Dynamics	EGNE 2311 Electric Circuits II	EGNE 2306 S2 Fluid Dynamics	EGNE 2325 S2 Modelling & Optimization for EGNE

Humanities: Atlantic Canada Studies, Asian Studies, Ancient Studies (Classics), English, History, Intercultural Studies, Irish Studies, Philosophy, Public Humanities & Heritage Religion, and Modern Languages (courses in literature and/or culture)

S1: Course typically offered in Summer I semester (May- June)
F: Course typically also offered in Fall semester (September -December)

S2: Course typically also offered in Summer II semester (July – August)

W: Course Typically also offered in Winter semester (January – April)
